

JULY 28, 2009

PRESS RELEASE: Ridgefield Arts Council has launched a new events calendar with popular weekly newsletter feature.

The Ridgefield Arts Council (RAC) has launched a new community cultural events calendar on its website www.ridgefieldartscouncil.org. In addition to listing information about arts and cultural events in town, the calendar also has several new features, including photos, billboard events, and maps and directions to venues.

“One of the most popular features of the new calendar is our weekly email newsletter,” said council member Ruth Wilder-Feldman. “If you are interested in local arts and culture, the weekly newsletter is a wonderful means of finding out what is going on in Ridgefield. Every Sunday you’ll receive an email with a list of all the events in the coming week, with links for more information. You can even customize your own newsletter to receive listings of the types of events that interest you, concerts, art openings, classes, or all of the above.”

To sign up for the RAC weekly newsletter please visit their website, www.ridgefieldartscouncil.org, and click on the Events Calendar, then go to the Newsletter link at the top of the page. “It’s so simple,” Said Ms. Wilder-Feldman. “Just a few clicks and you’ll have weekly updates on local culture delivered right to your inbox.”

For more information about the Ridgefield Arts Council and Ridgefield cultural events please visit ridgefieldartscouncil.org.